

Margaret and Garnet Hafey Trophy (Liberation Day)

In somewhat testing conditions at times, 10 triples teams contested the annual Liberation Day competition, the Margaret and Garnet Hafey Trophy. The 4 one hour games, with a lunchbreak in the middle, were keenly contested and the dress code of 'red, white and blue' made for a colourful day on the green.

At the end of the competition there were 3 teams with 3 wins. But with 6 points and a +12 shot difference, and therefore in the runners-up spot, was the team of Margaret Le Sueur (skip), Peter Davis and Ann Cross.

But the winners, with 6 points and a massive +35 shot difference, was the team of Cathy Le Sueur (skip), Phil Bichard and Russell Eyre (pictured above). Well done to them!

Thanks to everyone to took part in the competition, and also to those who helped behind the scenes.
